

Tax Accountant

compensation: $76K Annual Salary, Remote, 6 Month Contract + 6 Months option employment type: contract

We provided creative and insightful accounting solutions for individuals, professional-services companies, small and medium sized businesses and tax-exempt organizations. The firm provides a challenging, remote and rewarding work environment with excellent professional growth and long-term career opportunities.

This will be a 6 month contract, 40 hours per week, working remotely, with a 2 week initial training on-site located in New York. You must be web and tech savvy as all documentation, communication, and preparation systems are cloud based.

We are seeking a Tax Accountant to work in our general tax practice. Job duties include federal and multi-state tax return preparation and review, tax provisions and opinion memorandums research; tax consultation and special project management; managing, developing and sustaining excellent client relationships; and participating in training, mentoring, firm growth and business development activities.

Responsibilities

- Federal and multi-state tax return preparation and review
- Manage and execute special projects
- Research
- Tax consultation
- Train and mentor staff
- Support partners and management
- Maintain active communication with clients

Requirements:

- Bachelor's Degree in Accounting. Master in Tax desirable
- CPA licensed or EA, a plus
- Master's degree in Taxation from an accredited college/university preferred
- 2+ years of progressing experience at the tax senior or manager level
- Excellent analytical abilities, strong problem-solving skills and attention to detail
- Excellent communication skills with an emphasis on client service
- Excellent written and oral communication skills
- Strong organizational and management skills
- Deadline-driven and self-motivated