

Remote Retail Representative

Our growing company is in urgent search of Retail Representatives to work from home, address our consumer's calls and assist them with reserving reservations and purchasing services. This is a retail concentrated, genuine salary-based telecommute position for a major organization.

You will be permitted to telecommute from anywhere in the USA for this position, we just ask that you're dependable, professional and take pride in what you do.

Several of the responsibilities are:

- Accept a high number of incoming calls and follow up outgoing calls to prospective customers
- Research and browse business websites for key info.
- Enter detailed notes into CRM about each customer conversation

Several of the abilities we hope you have and we will help you develop:

- Preferred current encounter in telephone call center, inside sales/sales, customer care, client assistance, retail or hospitality experience
- Previous business to Business sales is a plus.
- Must be able to work from a quite remote environment without distractions with high speed internet service and your own computer with a minimum WEI of 3.3